How we will deal with your application?

There are no formal entry requirements for RHS Level 2 qualifications, but we do expect your application to contain a personal statement which demonstrates your enthusiasm for horticulture. RHS Level 2 theory courses will be dealt with in order of receipt. The RHS Level 2 Certificate in Practical Horticulture is particularly competitive, so it is essential you provide details of your gardening experience.

Your application will be processed at the earliest opportunity by the Learning Officer, but may take several weeks to process. Deadlines will be set for paying deposits if space is limited.

Costs for 2021 -22 academic year:

Course Title	Course Fees	Deposit Amount
RHS Level 2 Certificate in the Principles of Plant Growth, Propagation and Development	£565 Tuition Fee £76 Examination Fee	£200
RHS Level 2 Certificate in the Principles of Garden Planning, Establishment and Maintenance	£565 Tuition Fee £76 Examination Fee	£200
RHS Level 2 Certificate in Practical Horticulture	£795 Tuition Fee £203 Assessment Fee	£300

Return your completed application by email to winterbourne.applications@contacts.bham.ac.uk if possible. Alternatively return it by post to Learning Officer, Winterbourne House and Garden, University of Birmingham, 58 Edgbaston Park Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham, B15 2RT; or in person to a member of staff at the Winterbourne reception.
